

Hello everyone to the 21st edition (Week 14), of the NLLB Activities Packet!!!

This has been a good week for me, it's been a nice weekend, and I've been very productive. I've felt soo good today while putting this together, I've included a bonus in this edition!!!

This weeks theme, that I've really embraced, is celebrating Draw a Picture of a Bird Day!!! So, you get a blank page to draw and color in a bird! Don't forget to show them off when you're done!!

Other than that, not much here, I hope you enjoy the Activities Packet this week!!!

The Gateway to Spring:

April comes from the Latin verb aperire, which means "to open." Many like to believe the name of the month describes the flowers and trees opening at springtime.

SERVINGS

INGREDIENTS

- 1 Cup Butter
- 1 Cup Creamy Peanut Butter
- 1 Cup Granulated Sugar
- 1 Cup Brown Sugar
- 2 Eggs
- 2 Cups All Purpose Flour
- 1 tsp. Baking Soda
- 2 Cups Semi Sweet Chocolate Chips

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Preheat oven to 325° F. Prepare baking sheets and line with parchment paper, or foil.
2. Cream butter until smooth then add peanut butter and both sugars and beat until combined well. Add eggs and beat well.
3. Stir in flour and baking soda gradually until well combined, then Stir in chocolate chips.
4. Using a spoon, scoop out small portions of dough and drop onto cookie sheets, leaving about a 2" gap between each cookie.
5. Bake for about 15-20 minutes or until cookies are just firm around the edges- don't overbake- if you wait until they are brown on top, they will be too hard.

NOTES

A general note, I did indeed bake them till they just started to brown on the edges and top, and mine turned out just fine, not too hard at all. But of course, all ovens vary.

Shout Out & Special Thanks:

Just a few notes for anyone making it this far.

1) Do you know how hard it is to find a good coloring page of a Beaver?!? The only reason I picked this one was cause of his cute little face. I mean really, look at it!!

2) It is also National Find a Rainbow Day this week as well, hence the Rainbow one complete with Unicorn!
